Using the information from the previous chart, explain your leadership qualities & experiences & tell how they would help you be an effective Ohio FCCLA Executive Council member.

All of my FCCLA experiences throughout my ultimate journey have helped forge me into a strong candidate for executive council. My contributions as a local officer have shown me what it's like to be a member of an officer team, preparing me to be a part of a larger team such as the executive council. I have also learned what it takes to organize and contribute to community events through my experience as a local officer. At the regional and state level, I have been a part of or will soon be part of multiple competitions, and have excelled. Through these events, I have gained a newfound confidence in myself and my abilities. Certainly in the field of culinary arts, but also as a public speaker and my ability to create, organize, and plan quality work. Additionally, I have attended state officer training, further preparing me for this role. Outside of FCCLA, I have years of experience being a leader in my local church community. Where I have experience being part of community events featuring up to 2500 people. Participating in such events has given me invaluable experience that will without a doubt prove crucial as an executive council member.
